ITEM	ACTION
1. Welcome, Introductions and Apologies Mr Dickinson welcomed everyone to the meeting. No apologies for absence.
2. Review of the previous minutes The minutes were accepted as an accurate recording of the previous meeting.
3. Deputy Prime Minister Ten children from across the Trust, put themselves forward for the role of Deputy Prime Minister. Prior to the meeting, candidates put together a video, stating why they thought they would make a good Deputy PM. Videos had been published on the Waterton website. Schools then had a voting week, where they watched the videos and voted for their preferred candidate. Votes were counted and Emma from South Kirkby Academy was elected.
4. Election of Chair A mini election was held during the meeting. 18 children from across the Trust put themselves forward for the role of Chair. Every candidate had their opportunity to give a speech, as to why they would be a good Chairperson. Each candidate was numbered and only two representatives from each school voted by Ballot box to ensure fairness. Votes were counted and Chloe from Charlston Community School was announced as Chair.
5. Lorraine Harrison Lorraine Harrison attended the meeting to talk about a book she has written called Red Snow. Lorraine explained that the story is about a 12-year-old girl, something bad happens and the girl needs to find out what that is. Lorraine talked about always wanting to become an author and how she went about writing her book. She spoke about plot books and how a plot book is designed to help children understand the difference between a plot and a story. Lorraine proposed running a competition, where the children would write plots for stories. Each school would choose a winner and then the 10 winners would be judged by a panel to find an overall winner, Lorraine would then write a story from the winning plot. Agreed: Members of parliament considered the proposal and the competition was agreed unanimously. Action: Lorraine is to discuss the competition with Mrs Simpkins.
