Location	Waterton Academy Trust Various schools in the Wakefield District
Salary & Grade	Grade 4, SCP 14 FTE £16,231 (£9.16 per hour)
Hours	Ad-hoc hours, as and when required

Waterton Academy Trust is at an exciting time of growth and development, and is seeking to appoint a Relief Teaching Assistant to support our family of 12 schools on an ad-hoc basis.

The Trust has enjoyed much positive press recently regarding school improvement in challenging schools and is widely acknowledged as a desirable employer.

The successful candidate will work alongside the academy senior leadership teams with a focus on supporting children. This is a fantastic opportunity for someone to widen their experience working within a variety of schools.

This role will be primarily to cover incidents of absence in existing staff, and therefore the hours are variable, with no guarantee of work and no obligation to accept work offered. As such, hours may be offered at short notice and the successful candidate will need to be flexible.

At this time we are seeking an individual or individuals with experience of working with children with behavioural needs. This may be on a 1:1 basis, small groups or classroom support.

The successful applicants will be:

- A caring and reflective practitioner.
- An excellent communicators at all levels.
- A team players who is supportive of all schools' ethos'.
- An inspirational individuals who enables children to achieve their personal best.
- Highly motivated and resilient.
- Committed to high standards.
- Creative and forward thinking.

In return, we can offer:

- Supportive and forward-thinking leadership teams.
- The provision of high quality professional development.
- Children who are eager to learn and a pleasure to support.
- Friendly colleagues who believe there are no limits to what we can achieve for our children.
- Rich and varied opportunities for innovative collaborative working with colleagues from across the Waterton family of schools.
